

Ghana @ 70: Independence Celebration Experience

1st March 2027 to 7th March 2027

Day 1: Akwaaba! Arrival and Check-in- 1st March 2027

- Arrival at Accra International Airport. Meet and greet by Riali Consult Team and transfer to hotel for check-in and relaxation.
- Evening welcome dinner

Day 2: Assin Manso, the Journey of Remembrance- 2nd March 2027

- Depart Accra early to Assin Manso and visit the Ancestral Slave River Site, where captives took their last bath on African soil before the march to the coast. Walk the quiet forest path to the river where captives were bathed for the last time before the march to the coast. A place of silence, libation and reflection, and for many diaspora visitors the emotional heart of the journey home.
- Continue to Cape Coast for the overnight stay.

Day 3: Cape Coast Castle and Oxford Street Carnival- 3rd March 2027

- Have a Guided tour of UNESCO-listed Cape Coast Castle, including the dungeons and the Door of No Return.
- Cape Coast Castle: A whitewashed fortress rising above the Atlantic, once a center of the transatlantic slave trade. Step through its dungeons to the Door of No Return, then look out at the waves that carried millions away. Powerful, humbling and unforgettable.
- Return to Accra and check-in at Hotel.
- Evening, 7:00 PM: Head to Oxford Street, Osu, for the Carnival. Enjoy live music, street food and dancing as the city comes alive.

Day 4: Accra Heritage City Tour and Independence Soiree- 4th March 2027

- After breakfast, visit the W.E.B. Du Bois Centre: The peaceful final home of the great Pan-Africanist scholar, who chose Ghana in his last years. Explore his library and writings, and pay respects at his resting place in the garden.
- Afterwards visit the Kwame Nkrumah Memorial Park: Stand where Ghana's first president declared freedom in 1957. The sculpted mausoleum, his statue and the museum tell the story of the man who lit the flame of African independence.

- Black Star Square: Accra's grand parade ground and the stage for Independence Day celebrations. Walk beneath the Independence Arch and the Black Star Gate and feel the pride of a nation that led Africa to freedom.
- Independence Day Soiree: An elegant evening to toast 70 years of freedom. Dress in your finest African print or red, gold and green, and enjoy live music, great food and good company as the final countdown to Independence Day begins.

Day 5: Special Independence Cruise on Lake Volta, Akosombo- 5th March 2027

- After breakfast, travel to Akosombo for a celebration cruise on the Volta, with lunch on board, music, and views of the Akosombo Dam.
- Akosombo and Lake Volta: Glide across one of the world's largest man-made lakes, framed by green hills and the mighty Akosombo Dam that powered a young nation. Fresh breeze, golden light and good music make it the perfect way to toast 70 years of independence.
- Return to Accra in the evening.

Day 6: Independence Day, 6th March 2027

- Join the national celebrations at the Independence Square, with the option of the official ceremony, parades, concerts and street festivities.
- Evening, Independence day Gala dinner. Dress in Ghana's Colors (Red, Gold, Green)

Day 7: Departure- 7th March 2027

Breakfast at hotel.

Transfer to Accra International Airport and Farewell by Riali Team for departure.

END OF INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

Cost Starts from USD 3,999 Per Person Sharing. Take into Consideration Early Bird Payment to Save More Money

RATE INCLUDES

- Accommodation- 4 Star Hotel
- Transportation and Fuel
- Breakfast and one other meal (lunch)
- Welcome Dinner
- Gala Dinner
- Entrance Fees to all sites
- Services of a Tour Guide and Hostess
- Snacks

